SPICMACAY stands for Society for the Promotion of Indian Classical Music And Culture Amongst Youth. SPICMACAY is a non-political, voluntary movement founded in 1977 by Dr Kiran Seth, Professor-Emeritus at IIT-Delhi who was awarded the 'Padma Shri' for his contribution to the arts in 2009. SPICMACAY's intention is to enrich the quality of formal education by increasing awareness about different aspects of Indian Heritage and inspiring the young mind to imbibe the values embedded in it. SPICMACAY Lady Irwin College Chapter has been an active member of SPICMACAY for many years.

- In the year 2018-19, the Society hosted two major events, a Kathak workshop by one of the most famous Kathak exponents of India, Shri Uma Sharma and a breathtaking Cello instrumental performance by Saskia Rao De-Hass, the most marvelous in her music.
- In the year 2019-2020, the Society hosted two major events Manipuri Dance Performance by renowned artist Smt. Charu Sija Mathur and Padma Shree awardee Shri Rajkumar Singhajit Singh.
