- ✓ A National Conference on 'National Education Policy-2020: Conceptualizing Inclusive Education for 21st Century Learners' was organized by the Department of Education, Lady Irwin College, University of Delhi, on December 17, 2022. The conference deliberated upon various aspects of inclusive education and set a critical discourse on a possible way forward from diverse issues and challenges posed by 21st-century society. The conference is a timely event, especially when India stands at a crucial juncture of years old prevalent traditional educational rote methods and the progressive approach and pedagogy as reflected in the latest national education policy of the country.
 - The key subthemes of paper presentations were 'Equity, Diversity and Inclusion', 'Latest Trends in Education', 'Early Childhood Care and Education'; and 'Policy, Planning, Research and Development'. The conference witnessed huge paper presentations and participation from educationists, researchers, teachers, and teacher educators from diverse institutions in India.

- ✓ B.Ed. 1st-year Tutorial- Wall magazine on ‘Transgender in Indian Contemporary Society’- Transgender in Indian Contemporary Society & their Challenges were reflected by B.Ed. 1st years Tutorial group students’ wall magazine assignment, which reflected the life & conditions of transgender in Indian society. Inclusion of transgender with schools and colleges is a big challenge. There is a big problem of inclusion with male and female gender students. Transgender persons face extreme difficulty in finding a suitable job and work of their choice. They are forced into sex work, begging and dancing in bars etc. due to social discrimination in employment. The above aspects were reflected in the wall magazine.

- ✓ Educational trips to Jaipur and Surajkund exposed the students to the rich and diverse traditional dyeing, printing and weaving arts of various states of India on 31st January, 2023 and 10th February, 2023 respectively.
