

Dr Nidhi Jaiswal

Qualification: M.Sc. Food and Nutrition (University of Allahabad), Ph.D. (University of Allahabad).

Nature of Appointment: Permanent

Area of interest: Clinical nutrition, diabetes, oxidative stress biomarkers, antioxidants and polyphenols, cardiovascular diseases, gerontology, nutritional biochemistry.

Dr. Nidhi Jaiswal has been serving as an Assistant Professor at the Department of Food and Nutrition, Lady Irwin College for a decade. She has been the recipient of several academic awards including the Junior and Senior Research Fellowships by University Grants Commission. She has authored and co-authored various peer-reviewed scientific papers and presented her research work at many national and international conferences. She has been granted scholarships from CSIR and ICMR for presenting her research work in International Conferences. She has been certified as a food safety trainer for Basic Catering, Advanced Catering, and Covid-19 by Food Safety and Standard Authority of India (FSSAI). She is a master trainer for the Entrepreneurship Development Programme by the Ministry of Food Processing Industries, Government of India.