HERITAGE & BACKGROUND

The year 2023 marks the completion of 91 years of the establishment of Lady Irwin College, the first Home Science college of India. The college was established in 1932 under the patronage of the then Vicereine, Lady Dorothy Irwin, with the physical infrastructure of the college building designed by the famous architect, Sir Walter George. In these nine decades of this glorious journey, the college continues its rich legacy of providing holistic education.

Lady Irwin College was founded in 1932, on the 11th day of the 11th month with 11 students from nine different regions across the country. The first Home Science college of India established, as was customary, under the patronage of the then Vicereine, Lady Dorothy Irwin. The college is proud to have had illustrious founders including Annie Besant, Sarojini Naidu, Rajkumari Amrit Kaur, Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay, Sir Ganga Ram Kaula, Maharani of Gwalior, Maharani of Baroda and Margaret Cousins. The All India Women's Education Fund Association helped to lay strong foundation for women's education till the college was transferred to the University of Delhi. The buildings, designed by the renowned architect, Sir Walter George, are now classified and protected as heritage sites.

Lady Irwin College has pioneered women's education, emphasizing scientific approach to home and community life. It is indeed a matter of pride that the Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi, through correspondence with Rajkumari Amrit Kaur, blessed the college with the motto "विद्या हि सेवा". True to the motto, the educational endeavour at Lady Irwin college is to inculcate a spirit of "knowledge to serve" through carefully planned classroom and outreach experiences. This spirit of service has percolated over the decades to put Home Science on the academic map of India. With its facility of residence, the college continues to attract students from across the country and overseas.

Over more than nine decades of its evolution, Lady Irwin College has actively been shaping Home Science curricula to include contemporary academic content, appropriate and innovative research and sound technological knowledge. The college has had the privilege of being recognized as a Centre for Advanced Studies by the UGC. In the University of Delhi, Lady Irwin College has the distinction of being the first college with postgraduate and doctoral courses of study. The undergraduate programme was introduced in 1950, followed by the first postgraduate programme in 1952, and a Bachelor's degree in Education. With the passage of time, undergraduate programmes in Home Science included both Pass and Honours courses under the aegis of the Faculty of Science, University of Delhi. Subsequently, postgraduate programmes have been initiated in each of the specializations of Home Science. At present, there are five areas of specialization: Food and Nutrition, Human Development and Childhood Studies, Fabric and Apparel Science, Development Communication and Extension, and Resource Management and Design Application. In addition, B.Sc. degree in Food Technology, postgraduate diploma in Dietetics and Health Nutrition and two Bachelors' degrees in Education, B.Ed. (Teaching subject Home Science) and B.Ed. Special Education (ID) are also offered.

The undergraduate and postgraduate curricula are reviewed and revised at regular intervals to reflect the advancements in processes of generation and comprehension of knowledge. The undergraduate and postgraduate curriculum offered at Lady Irwin College were revised to the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) from semester mode in 2015, which was further modified to Learning Outcome based Curriculum Framework in 2019. The most recent revision has been done in 2022 to align the curriculum with NEP UGCF 2022 framework.

The college has been a template for over 700 colleges and schools offering the discipline of Home Science in India and neighbouring countries, providing guidance in the development of curricula, programmes and infrastructure. Various important decisions of curriculum advancement, research activities and educational principles have been initiated by the college. Several faculty members continue to support this input by active engagement with the Boards of Studies of several universities in the country, SCERT, NCERT and CBSE. The faculty of the college actively participates in consultations to government and non governmental organizations, national and international, such as the UN, regarding policy and planning for higher education in general, and the specializations of Home Science in particular. The college participates in many programmes of the ministries of Health, Education, Women & Child and Renewable Energy.

Many of our highly qualified faculty have received national and international recognition for their teaching, research and publications. They lead and participate in research projects by institutions such as the UGC, the ICSSR, and designated government departments, national and international agencies.

An especially accurate marker of the success of an academic institution is its alumnae. Graduates of Lady Irwin College occupy executive positions in organizations such as the NITI Aayog, UNICEF and World Bank. Many are excelling in academia in the role of deans of colleges, teachers and principals of schools. Numerous alumnae have been successful in the fields of art, fashion, literature and as entrepreneurs in a remarkable variety of businesses in India and abroad. Significant to the college is the Rajkumari Amrit Kaur (RAK) Child Study Centre that provides development centric care and education to children and creates a model inclusive environment for their families. Being successfully run by the college since 1955, it exemplifies the transformative linkage between higher education and basic education.

Post Graduate Studies

In the year 2007, the college took a critical step forward in the academic programme by launching updated curricula with more current nomenclature at the Masters level in all areas of study. All the five PG curricula were again revised in 2019 with contemporary content in LOCF format. The faculty of the Department of Home Science engaged with experts in the field and alumnae to accomplish this task. With the approval of the University, courses with revised nomenclature and contemporary content are being taught in the current session with renewed enthusiasm and application for socially relevant study in each of the domains of Home Science:

- B.Ed. Home Science
- B.Ed. Special Education
- M.Sc. Food and Nutrition
- M.Sc. Development Communication & Extension
- M.Sc. Resource Management and Design Application
- M.Sc. Human Development and Childhood Studies
- M.Sc. Fabric and Apparel Science

Commitment to Community Work

The faculty and students have responsibly engaged with people and communities in diverse and difficult circumstances, fulfilling the role of the college in generating knowledge and enabling access to the public. This has enriched and expanded the quality of academic work across specializations. Students receive the benefits of knowledge from advanced research activities even in their undergraduate years. Correspondingly, postgraduate and doctoral students are also urged to remain sensitive to the needs of community, and align their studies with issues of the everyday concerns of women, children, families, and social institutions, in the domains of health and nutrition, human development, community resources and fabric sciences. Rajkumari Amrit Kaur (RAK) Child Study Centre provides regular hands-on experiences to the students as well as early intervention to young children and their families.

Advances in Teaching

Faculty members continue to advance their understanding of research in India by participating in orientation and refresher courses as required by the University of Delhi. Through these courses, conferences and seminars, the faculty keep themselves updated with the latest advances in their respective fields. The college community is committed to higher education in Home Science through capacity building and empowerment of young women. In addition to developing core skills among the students, teachers, the college education also address issues of gender-equality, political participation, resource utilization, and ethics in research methods in each of the specializations. In this manner, the young women receive training for both professional and life skills.

Their experiences at college are designed to facilitate self- development, as well as to develop them into active, energetic members of their community. Issues of social responsibility are integral to every course.

The college has a collaborative student exchange programme with the Michigan State University. Each year, students from both institutions travel, take courses and exchange ideas. This provides both the institutions and individuals with opportunities for healthy cross-cultural collaboration, academic exchange and cultural understanding. On both sides of the exchange, students return to their home country deeply enriched by the varied experiences that are arranged for them during their stay. Also, The Rural Youth Volunteers in India-HSU-LIC Twinning Programme (Supported by US Embassy in India) conceived in 2017 and executed in 2018, has created an opportunity for cultural exchange of young students selected through a rigorous procedure of selection conducted by Humboldt State University in Arcata, California (U.S.) and Lady Irwin faculty for their set of students.

DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE

The Department of Science, Lady Irwin College has its roots in the origin of B.Sc. Home Science degree programme in the year 1950. The Department of Science has been engaging highly qualified faculty from various disciplines: Botany, Biomedical Sciences, Chemistry, Environmental Science, Horticulture, Molecular Biology, Physics, Zoology etc. Department of Science has interdisciplinary approach, it is committed towards instilling rational thinking, creating scientific temper, decision making and skill development amongst undergraduates through basic and applied teaching in the streams of Botany, Chemistry, Environmental sciences, Physics and Zoology. The curriculum of the subjects trains the students in laws of natural sciences through supportive practical experiments and field visits.

Our students hail from various educational backgrounds, many of them are not having sufficient preparatory training in sciences. This Coursework hence helps preparing a level playfield for all by the time they are ready to pass out and join their professional duties.

The curriculum of science also helps students in developing research skill in sciences to do research at Masters and Ph. D. level. Many students opt for B. Ed. and B. Ed. Special Education after finishing their under graduate programmes. Having a strong science base at undergraduate level, the students are able to efficiently teach science to school students after doing Bachelor of Education. The Science courses provide skill and build capacities in students to become leaders in their professional life.

The Department of Science prepares the students to have an analytical thinking, to be observant, to have a rationalistic approach, to value and conserve natural resources and to be sensitive towards agrarian society. The

“A home away from home”, Lady Irwin College Hostel nests around 200 graduate and postgraduate students coming from different states of India and abroad.

The Hostel, housed in two buildings, stands tall and majestic. Made of red brick walls, the hostel building makes a bold statement against the lush green landscape.

The main hostel, Hilla Faridoonji Hall, was inaugurated in 1934 and PG Hostel was inaugurated by Mrs. Hilla Rustomji Faridoonji, President of All India Women’s Education Fund Association (AIWEFA) in 1954. The main Hostel houses undergraduates and PG Hostel accommodates largely post-graduate students and Ph.D. scholars.

The sprawling lush green lawns in front of the buildings add splendour to the architectural beauty of the red brick buildings. The eye-catching serpentine staircase and spacious galleries in front of rooms characterize the main hostel building. The interiors and layouts of the rooms in the two buildings are in harmony with nature and ensure sunlight and free circulation of air. The students are free to jog and walk the lush green campus. They avidly use the basketball court for jogging, play, group activities, and study sessions.

‘स्वच्छंद’

Swachandh, the theme of the embroidered panel, is a tribute to all the women of India who stood firmly for the Nation - who could play a role in social and economic upliftment of themselves. The choice of the kantha art form is inspired by Smt Kamala Devi Chattopadhyay's movement – ‘Give empowerment to the women, and give employment to the women of underdeveloped states and cities of West Bengal’. The panel has four different sites to cherish the role of a woman and her strength in every role as one of its kind such as Mother, Educator, Leader, and Engineer. The artist has curated the piece which demonstrates the empowered women of Independent India in its 75th year of glorious Azadi Mahotsav.
